Hello Everyone,

We hope that you are all well and keeping safe. We miss you all!

We are very excited to invite you to enter our special competition!

2s, Nursery and Reception children - Please draw a picture of your family at home. Can you write your name? Can you write the names of the family members on your picture?

Children in Years 1 - 6. Please choose one of the following: Write a newspaper report, a diary entry, a poem, an information leaflet or a short story about staying at home with your family during the virus 'lockdown'.

Let us know how the 'lockdown' has affected you and your family. Impress us with your knowledge and skills as writers! We can't wait to read them!

The winning entries will be added to our 'Special Black Book', and all entries will be included in your Class Black Book when you return to school, so don't forget to add your name and class details.

Parents and Carers - Please send competition entries via our school email by end of day Friday 22nd May, or you could drop your entry off at school on the trolley as part of your daily exercise if you are able to. We look forward to reading these! We will
