

Year 2: What can we learn from the story of St. Cuthbert?

Who was St. Cuthbert?

- He was born in 634 AD.
- As a boy he worked as a shepherd.
- One night in 651 AD, he saw a light in the sky.
- He believed it was God calling him to be his servant, so he became a monk.
- He taught people how to live good lives.
- In 664 AD he became the Prior of Lindisfarne.
- In 676 AD he retired to live in a cave.
- He died in 687 AD.
- In 698 AD the monks of Lindisfarne fled and carried St. Cuthbert's body around to find a safe place for his body to rest.
- He was eventually taken to Durham Cathedral in 996 AD.
