

Year 1: What was here before us?

Knowledge

Timothy Hackworth was an engineer who was alive during the Victorian era.

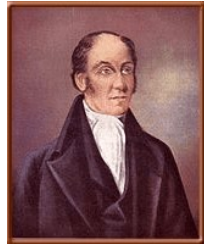

The Victorian era is the time when Queen Victoria was on the throne.

Timothy Hackworth lived in Shildon.

Timothy Hackworth invented one of the first ever steam engines and was famous because of this.

Our school is named after Timothy Hackworth and was built over a century ago.

Lots of things have changed about our school since it was built and lots of things have stayed the same.

Our school in the past.

Our school now.

Vocabulary

century	100 years.
change and continuity	To change or stay the same.
chronology	Learning about dates and time.
compare	Finding what is the same and what is different.
difference	Things that are not the same.
past	Things that happened before us.
significant	Something that is important.
similarity	Things that are the same or like each other.
source	Something we can get information or knowledge from.
Victorian	The time when Queen Victoria was on the throne.

CRC Article 1:

All children should have their basic human rights met.

