A verb is an action; a doing word.	An adverb is a word or phrase that tells us more about the time, place or manner of the action described in the rest of the sentence. Adverbs tell us more about the verb.	When an adverbial phrase is used as a sentence opener, it must be followed by a comma, for example, 'Après le petit-déjeuner, ma mère parle avec sa fille.'	Intonation describes how we can use our voice to help to show meaning in a sentence.	In written sentences, a comma is used to separate words in a sentence.
