Grammar - Questions using Inversion

Questions can be formed by inverting the verb and pronoun. In writing, a hyphen is put in between the verb and pronoun, e.g.
Il est quelle heure ? becomes Quelle heure est-il ?

Grammar - Clause

A clause is a group of words that can form a sentence, or part of a sentence. It always contains a verb. A main clause can stand alone and makes sense on its own. A subordinate clause cannot stand alone and is incomplete by itself.

Grammar - Sentence

A simple sentence is made up of one clause. A complex sentence is made up of at least two clauses: main and subordinate.

Grammar - Cognate and False Friend

A cognate is a word in two languages that looks or sounds similar, and has the same meaning. A false friend is a word in two languages that looks or sounds similar, but does not have the same meaning.

Pronunciation - the grapheme qu

The letters qu in English represent two phonemes: [k] and [w]. In French these letters form a grapheme that represents a single phoneme: [k]. The same phoneme can be represented by the letter q without the u if it comes at the end of a word.

CRC Article 31: All children have the right to play, relax and take part in cultural and artistic activities.
