

Autumn 2023 Issue 2

Welcome to the second issue of The Timothy Hackworth Times; produced by pupils for pupils. Each week, our fantastic members of Newspaper Club have been learning the skills required to become budding journalists. We hope you enjoy this issue and all of the issues to come!

This paper is produced by the budding reporters of Timothy Hackworth's brand new Newspaper Club.

Timothy Hackworth made a difference!

As a Gold Level Rights Respecting school we work to enable all children to access their rights. As the Timothy Hackworth Child believes in tolerance, acceptance and equality, we take part in several charitable events each year.

3T raised money for Jeans for Genes.

1/2T raised money for Children in Need.

Here are some photographs of our fabulous children taking part in raising money for these events. Remember, as a cashless school all donations are made via your ParentPay account.

Article 29: All children have the right to be the best they can be.

Jolly Jokes.

Our children have enjoyed sharing festive jokes with their peers. Here are our favourites. Ho ho ho:

What do you get if you cross an apple with a Christmas tree?
A pineapple!

Why is Rudolph good at school?
Because he went down in History.

What does an elf study in school?
The Elfabet.

What does Mrs. Claus say when there are clouds in the sky?
It looks like rain, deer.

What says oh, oh, oh?
Santa walking backwards.

Why was the elf off school?
He has tinselitus.

Book Review

The Tiger who came to tea

Written and illustrated by

The Tiger Who Came to Tea

The book is about a tiger who invited himself to Sophie's house for tea. The tiger didn't just take one sandwich, he ate all of the food and drank all of the drinks in Sophie's house.

Luna, Jayden and Bobby give this book a 9 /10. You will like this book if you like animals and funny stories!

Interview with an adult.

One of the best parts of Newspaper Club is practising our interviewing skills on the teachers! For this issue we interviewed: Mrs Laverick.

Do you enjoy being a teaching assistant?
Yes, I love my job.

What is your favourite colour? Blue.

What are your hobbies?
I like reading, cooking and walking.

What is your favourite subject?
English because I love reading.

How do you feel in your new classroom with your new class?
I am very happy with my new class. They all work very hard and they are a pleasure to be with.

Do you have any pets?
No, but I wish I had a dog.

What is your favourite book?
I like detective novels. My favourite authors are Chris Carter and Rachel Linch.

Can you tell us a fact about Timothy Hackworth?
The school was built in 1912.

Tell us your best joke.
Why did the little boy bring a car to school? He wanted to drive the teacher around the bend.
