CRC Article: 15

You have the right to choose your own friends and join or set up groups, as long as it isn't harmful to others.

CRC Article 17:

You have the right to get information that is important to your well-being.

CRC Article 19:

You have the right to be protected from being hurt and mistreated, in body or mind.

CRC Article 31:

You have the right to play and rest.

As a Gold Award Anti-Bullying School we have taken part in the Anti-Bullying Week. This year the theme was Choose Respect.

WHAT IS RESPECT?

Define languages definitions

Have due regard for (someone's feelings, wishes, or rights).

ANTI-BULLYING ALLIANCE

What is Bullying?

The repetitive, intentional hurting of one person or group
by another person or group, where the relationship
involves an imbalance of power.
Bullying can be physical, verbal or psychological.

It can happen face to face or online.

The children took part in a variety of activities, learning about how we can show respect and solve differences when we don't agree with someone else, P.S.H.E. and Family groups lessons in which they looked at the difference between peaceful and angry situations. Years 3 and 4 had a Workshop lesson which included games and drama activities and role played some different scenarios. Everyone had a lot of fun learning.
