

'Respectful and resilient; being the best that we can be.'

Timothy Hackworth Primary School

CRC Article 28 – All children have the right to a good quality education.

Home School Agreement

Timothy Hackworth Primary School agrees to:

- treat all pupils with respect, and to instil a sense of respect for themselves, for their friends, peers, parents and families and the wider community;
- support pupils to become the best that they can be;
- provide a safe, warm and welcoming environment to ensure that pupils' right to be safe is always met, both online and offline, in school;
- value children's talents, creativity and abilities;
- provide quality teaching and learning that engages, motivates, challenges and supports pupils in making good levels of progress;
- set appropriate homework to develop learning skills and to extend learning;
- provide quality marking and feedback so that pupils know how to improve;
- expect high standards of behaviour for learning;
- have high expectations of pupil presentation, through our School Uniform Policy, in order to provide high expectations and aspirations ready for the world of work;
- provide the Parent Pod facility to support parents and carers and their children;
- communicate clearly with parents and carers;
- provide parents and carers with information regarding pupil progress;
- have high expectations of all pupils, with the aim of raising expectations so that pupils develop in confidence, self-esteem, and the aspirations to achieve their potential;
- continue to provide support for parents and carers through our Pupil and Families Intervention Support Lead.

The Governing Body of Timothy Hackworth Primary School agrees to:

- uphold the Rights Respecting ethos of our school;
- support the Head Teacher, staff, pupils and parents and carers in the delivery of the school's values to promote positive outcomes for all;
- respect privacy and confidentiality at all times;
- strive to support the work of the Head Teacher and teachers in the interests of the children;
- monitor the Home School Agreement and its implementation.

'Respectful and resilient; being the best that we can be.'

Timothy Hackworth Primary School

Parents and Carers of Timothy Hackworth Primary School agree to:

- support our school's Rights Respecting ethos;
- show respect to our staff;
- provide a suitable space and opportunity for children to complete their homework;
- support our Respectful Relationships (Behaviour Policy), including any sanctions that may be given to children;
- ensure that children attend school each day, except when medically unfit, or in very exceptional circumstances;
- provide appropriate school uniform and PE Kit, through the support of our School Uniform Policy;
- support children with their homework, which includes listening to children read each night;
- support our children's right to be safe by parking responsibly around school and driving at the appropriate speed so as not to endanger pupils;
- attend appointments and meetings about children as appropriate;
- communicate promptly with our school when there are any changes of circumstance, for example, informing school of a change of address or contact telephone number, or issues that will impact on the progress of children;
- being available for school to contact should the need arise;
- encourage children to participate in opportunities and activities arranged for them which will help them to realise their full potential;
- support our school and its non-smoking environment;
- where appropriate, provide a healthy school packed lunch;
- support the school's policies to ensure that children are safe, by not allowing children to bring mobile phones into school.

Pupils at Timothy Hackworth Primary School agree to:

- be proud ambassadors for our Rights Respecting School;
- follow our school charters so that children will be the best that they can be;
- show respect towards our school, the staff in our school and the equipment and resources that children use;
- try their best with their learning so that they can be the best that they can be;
- tell an adult if they are worried about anything;
- remember to bring PE Kits to school;
- follow our 'Getting On and Being Friends' Policy;

'Respectful and resilient; being the best that we can be.'

Timothy Hackworth Primary School

- follow all instructions given by staff;
- respect other people in our school whatever their age (as appropriate), disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation (LGBTQ+);
- wear school uniform and PE Kit with pride;
- co-operate with staff, parents and carers at all times;
- make the most of opportunities to take part in extra-curricular school activities that will help to make the most of their right to an education and will prepare them for the next steps in life.

Parent/Carer Signature: _____ Date: _____

Name of Child(ren): _____ Class: _____

Name of Child(ren): _____ Class: _____

Name of Child(ren): _____ Class: _____

Name of Child(ren): _____ Class: _____

Head Teacher: Mrs. L. Boulton
Deputy Head Teacher: Mrs. S. Simpson-May
Chair of Governors: Mrs. P. Crook

Byerley Road, Shildon, Co. Durham, DL4 1HN
Tel: 01388 772959
Email: timothyhackworth@durhamlearning.net
Website: www.timothyhackworthschool.co.uk

