World Book Day 2022 – Thursday 3rd March

Dear Parents and Carers,

Everyone at Timothy Hackworth Primary is looking forward to celebrating World Book Day this year, after half-term, on Thursday 3rd March.

As part of our World Book Day celebrations on Thursday 3rd March, we would like to invite your child to come to school wearing some warm and cosy pyjamas! School shoes or trainers must also be worn – no slippers please!

We are all going to curl up with a book, with some hot chocolate and marshmallows at the end of the day – our very own school special 'bedtime story'!

Unfortunately, we will not be holding our World Book Day Parade this year due to our school's CV19 restrictions; hopefully, next year, we will be able to do this again.

There are a number of other exciting activities that the whole school will be taking part in too, which include reading competitions involving both pupils and staff, and writing activities based around reading.

On World Book Day, children will be given their special World Book Day £1 voucher, which they can use online or in bookshops to buy a special World Book Day book.

Why not have a special World Book Day bedtime story with your child before they enter the land of nod?! Bedtime stories are an amazing way to end a busy day; it is always good to curl up with a book!

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Wilcox
